Miguel Delgado Joins C&L Aerospace as Regional Sales Manager for Latin America / Caribbean

BANGOR, Maine – C&L Aerospace, a C&L Aviation Group company, announces Miguel A. Delgado as its Regional Sales Manager responsible for Latin America and the Caribbean. Delgado, has over 30 years of Latin American aviation parts sales experience and expertise in creating innovative solutions for customers.

“Miguel’s ability to create long-term and PBH solutions for customers, enhanced market development skill, and extensive Latin American experience will be a tremendous asset to C&L,” said Martin Cooper, Senior Vice President of Sales. “We’re very excited that he has chosen to join C&L, and look forward to him creating cost-saving programs for our customer.”

Delgado will further develop C&L’s relationships with Latin American regional airlines, specializing in ATR, ERJ, Beech 1900, and Saab 340 aircraft along with military operators utilizing T700 and CT7 engine platforms. Delgado was previously Americas Sales Director with Acumen Aviation. He will utilize his wealth of aviation experience and knowledge to support customers with the aircraft parts and programs that support their needs.

Delgado is based out of Miami, Florida.
